Re: Walsh v. Anjost Corporation and Zaro Bake Shop,
Inc., 18-cv-8236 (JGK)

Dear Judge Koeltl,

Petitioner John J. Walsh, Jr., Regional Director for Region 2 of the National Labor Relations Board, for and on behalf of the Board ("Petitioner") in the above-reference matter writes to request a two-week adjournment of all dates in connection with the pending application for injunctive relief. Petitioner, Respondent Anjost Corporation and Zaro Bake Shop, Inc., as a single employer ("Respondent"), and the Bakery, Confectionary, Tobacco Workers and Grain Millers International Union, Local 53, AFL-CIO have made significant progress towards a settlement agreement that would resolve all issues pending before the Court in this matter. The parties need additional time to finalize and execute the settlement and remain hopeful that this request will allow sufficient time to do so.

If this adjournment request is granted, the new dates in connection with the Petitioner's pending application for injunctive relief shall be:

1. Respondent's opposition papers filed on or before November 16, 2018
2. Petitioner's reply papers filed on or before November 23, 2018
3. Order to Show Cause Hearing on November 29, 2018

This is the parties' fourth request for an adjournment in this matter, and counsel for both the Respondent and the labor union involved in this matter consent to this adjournment request. Thank you.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/ Jacob Frisch
